About Us!

Version XI Sports is a premium activewear brand known for innovation and cutting-edge technology. The high-quality manufacturing and best experience are cutting-edge for us. Version XI's vision is to be the athlete's brand of choice through outstanding products created for everlasting moments and new individual performance levels.

The privately held company is a team of five individuals who all share a passion and dedication to sports. Version XI was founded in 2021 in Lahore, Pakistan, where the head office is located. Version XI is operating in UK and Pakistan, where manufacturing takes place.